What did you like most about having Ahmed as your tutor?

I liked that he really wanted me to learn the material and did not seem like he was purely in it for money. He was really knowledgeable about the subject and had good strategies for making calculations easier. And he was patient when I did not understand some material. Also he had old midterms and knew what was probably going to be tested so that was super helpful as well!

What did you like least about having Ahmed as your tutor (what can improve)?

There was nothing I had problems with at all... sorry I know that does not help lol. But I there's nothing to improve on.

Would Ahmed make a good prof? Why or why not?

Obviously. He teaches way better than any accounting professor that I have ever had. He breaks things down step by step in a way that is more simple to understand and explains everything thoroughly unlike professors. He gets straight to the point of how to accomplish answers instead of confusing you with terms and going about a long unnecessary details that professors always throw in that confuses students further.

What did you like most about having Ahmed as your tutor?

He went very in depth with his explanations and made sure the student was understanding the content. He went at the pace according to how the student learned. Some tutors I find are a waste of money, but Ahmed was not! He was very helpful and very very kind :)

What did you like least about having Ahmed as your tutor (what can improve)?

Ahmed is a great tutor, and was very knowledgeable about the subject, therefore I don't think there is anything he needs to improve on. His explanations helped me learn accounting better than classroom lectures.

Would Ahmed make a good prof? Why or why not?

Ahmed would make an excellent prof! He knows how to relate to the students and communicate with large crowds (review sessions). He had a very good way of making accounting more simple rather than complicated.

What did you like most about having Ahmed as your tutor?

He is very thorough and takes his time to make sure that you understand what he is teaching you. His sessions are extremely helpful and hands on which helped me understand the course better and all the theories involved.

What did you like least about having Ahmed as your tutor (what can improve)?

Nothing, I believe that he understands the struggles that students generally have with these accounting courses. With this he is able to approach the concepts and teach them at a level they will understand.

Would Ahmed make a good prof? Why or why not?

He would make an amazing prof because he knows how to engage with students and keep them interested and paying attention.
